

Choosing the right CPAP Machine

*Note: If patient has a script, they'll need a fixed CPAP

Note: Most machines come with an SD inserted. If not, a blank SD can be used.

TURN PAGE TO SEE FULL LIST OF CPAP OPTIONS

Choosing the right CPAP Machine

Löwenstein
Prisma SOFT/SMART

Equipped with prismaRECOVER and Löwenstein's state-of-the-art algorithm, this device offers unmatched insights into your sleep quality.

Löwenstein
Prisma20A

Only APAP machine on the market with a dynamic mode, making it top of the line for complex cases.

ResMed
AirSense 11

Combines cutting-edge features with a user-centric design to create a personalised therapy experience. Offers EPR for extra relief on exhale.

ResMed
AirSense 10

Simple and intuitive, this device uses intelligent AutoRamp detection and an Easy-Breath motor for maximum comfort.

Fisher & Paykel SleepStyle+

Combines advanced technology with ease of use. Offering the SensAwake feature for a complete night's rest.

BMC
G3

Features a user-friendly interface, with real-time data display and Intelligent Auto settings to adapt to the user and their environment.

BMC
G2S

Uses flow sensory technology to gauge patients needs and adjusts pressure accordingly.

Philips
DreamStation

Its sleek profile and detachable humidifier, along with an easy-to-navigate settings menu, make it an ideal sleep companion for beginner-level users.

Yuwell
BreathCare III

High-definition touch screen and built-in ambient light sensor make for easy viewing of CPAP data.

Yuwell
YH480

Alerts users if their mask has shifted during the night and compensates for minor leaks, for consistent airflow.

Sefam
S.Box

Efficient and maintains optimal comfort, all packaged in an easy-to-use machine.